This set of two DVDs provides an in-depth guide to assessing specific body regions and life-span variations. The first disc presents anatomy and physiology for all body regions and includes a special section of drag-and-drop exercises. The second disc demonstrates examination techniques, with particular emphasis on a) focused exam—quick techniques from head to toe; b) comprehensive exam—in-depth techniques for each body region; and c) life-span variations in the region under study for infants, children, and older adults.
