Villa dei Quintili (Live Rome) (Volume 1) Stefano Benedetti

Live Rome is a series of books with two purposes. The first aim is to be a detailed and fully illustrated guide for tourists who want to know interesting places and little known. The second purpose is to allow those who can not come to Rome, to visit the most beautiful places comfortably seated in an armchair. The book Villa of the Quintili inaugurates this series and tells the vast archaeological site with secure information that enables a vision, historical, artistic and archaeological. The book also contains valuable and detailed information on how to reach the archaeological site by public transport from various points of the city. Opening hours of the periods of the year and place services complement a rich book of photographs that reveal a unique place in the world.
