Boys in the Field: A Championship Journey from Red Land to Williamsport David Scott Slayton

"They started merely as boys. They developed into a team. And then, they became...Champions."

This is the story of thirteen kids who dared to chase a dream, a dream they shared as ballplayers, and the men who guided them each step of the way. They came together - worked hard together, aspired together - and together, in the summer of 2015, they formed a team that captured the hearts and imaginations of people everywhere.

Through sacrifice, struggle, and the building of relationships between fathers who had to harden their sons, and mothers who had to comfort them, this group of individuals became unified to one purpose. As a result, boys became friends, friends became teammates, and working together, they became champions.

This story is about the championship journey from Red Land to Williamsport in 2015 for the Red Land Little League team.
