Ever since he could remember FINN had the ability of wishing he could go to a National Park after studying about it in school. In the morning when he woke up he was with a different family or a relative bringing him along to experience everything the National Park had to offer. Finn learned geography, history and the natural wonders the park had to offer. You can join Finn on his adventure and imagine being there yourself. See if you can find the parks, its animals and study the features of the parks on the computers and tablets. Today FINN goes to: YELLOWSTONE
