Christmas at Brownlie Manor Anita Stansfield

Years ago, a whirlwind romance brought them together. In love as ever, Thomas Fitzbatten and his charming wife, Ruth, are delighted by the promise of another magical Christmas with their young children in Brownlie Manor. Yet, despite their anticipation of the lively celebrations that will brighten their home, they are deeply concerned for a recently widowed tenant on their estate who will spend the holiday alone. Inexplicably guided to the side of this frightened young woman late one night, Thomas and Ruth are drawn into a Christmas miracle reminiscent of that lowly stable so long ago. . .
