Dear Reader, I love a bubble bath when things are tense, but sometimes it seems like too much effort or I just don't have time to get my hair wet, and I always do get it wet if it's a good, effective bubble bath that truly relaxes. Well, I have come up with a little alternative to the bubble bath. Open the pages of Haiku Haven and slip into a bubble bath for the brain. Leave worries behind and reflect on lovely, loving thoughts. Let your mind entertain images of peaceful pretty portraits, of happy memories of childhood, or just the simple opening of a flower. It will soothe your soul if you let it. Read one or ten or all of them, and find yourself in a calmer place. The peaceful moments you may experience while reading Haiku Haven are my sincerest hope for you.
