Matata king was a unearthly created boy by a Maasai magician. He shook the world with his powerful magic. A tourist named Tim with an idea of making money, stole him from his home. However, terrible things happened when two scientists with the same idea, found their own bad boys created by an evil magician. They lived on human blood wich made them grow rapidly into aggressive giants. In a few months most people were frail, but stronger ones dug under the earth and built cities, while planning to attack the giants. King Matata's magic and the Maasai gods helped them to fight. There after, Tim and him, started on an adventurous journey, ending up in strange worlds of freakish creatures. Find out what happened and how they got out of the bizarre worlds.
