Owe No Man: Scriptural Principles of Good Stewardship and Divine Providence Jonathan Murro

Owe No Man is a manual of emancipation from the slavery of debts and a guide to prosperity and creativity. The authors present priceless wisdom regarding God's principles of prosperity, sacred stewardship, tithing, holy having, honorableness, and the householder life. As teachers of the higher life for many years, they draw upon their experiences with truth-seekers in the modern-day world who live according to Scriptural principles of Divine Providence.
