To be common implies being ordinary or average. Why settle for mediocrity or an average life when abundance is available? Each of us are presented with the same common choices and yet there are those who seem to have success come easy for them, they seem happy no matter what life throws their way. Simply put those people seem uncommon! There is nothing ordinary or average about those certain people. What is their secret? The secret lies within the choices those uncommon people make! Those successful individuals that experience abundance simply make the right common choices that each of us are faced with on a daily basis. As you read Common Choices for Uncommon People and begin to implement the daily practical and spiritual application, you will find that you will become that Uncommon Person, that person that has chosen not to settle for mediocrity but to go for the abundance that is available. You will find that joy becomes a way of life. You will experience peace in the midst of storms. You will have others wonder what your secret is! Then, as an Uncommon Person, you will be able to experience abundance as Jesus talked about in John 10:10 and you'll have opportunities to share how by simply making the right Common Choices, anyone can enjoy abundance and become that Uncommon Person!
