A nine-and-a-half-year-old boy was stricken with paralytic polio. He spent almost a year in bed, unable to move his legs or feel any sensation. Some say he was an unfortunate victim, but he never pitied himself. After a miraculous recovery (and fifteen subsequent major surgical operations to his legs and back) Robb would learn to play golf thanks to his dad, R. B. Shultz. He would then go on to become a two-year NCAA All-American Collegiate Golf Team member and lead his team to the 1966 NCAA College Division Golf Championship.
