Bobbi Farqua is a Washington, DC, publicist who knows how to close a deal. Success in business comes easy, but her love life is a different story. The loyalty she shows her clients doesn't work with men-it never did. They only want one thing, and now so does she. When Bobbi takes on NFL baller, Savon Turner, as a client during a paternity scandal, business turns personal and she winds up in a full-blown love affair. But Monica, Savon's fiancée is nobody's pushover. In a tangled web of unchecked hurt, selfishness, and indiscretion, Bobbi learns that everything has a price, even love. And sometimes the price is more than you're willing to pay.
