The Selected Works of Arthur C. Clarke is a collection of four unique science-fiction novels penned by renowned sci-fi author, Arthur C. Clarke. This collection not only thrills and excites readers with Clarke's passion for science-fiction and speculative work, but his words ask readers big questions about what it means to be human, and humanity's relationship with nature and technology.

The Deep Range: A hundred years into the future, humanity lives mostly on the oceans—tending vast whale herds and plankton farms. Walter Franklin works on a submarine patrol—and his adventures under the sea are told in this riveting tale, set against the backdrop of a world both futuristic and familiar...

The Trigger: A team of scientists develops the ultimate passive weapon—a device that detonates all nitrate-based bombs. But even protective weaponry comes with moral dilemmas—and the device's inventor struggles to keep the weapon from those with violent intentions...

The Ghost from the Grand Banks: An astonishing discovery is made when the two halves of the Titanic are raised from the seabed—six perfectly preserved bodies, including a beautiful woman who was not listed among the ship's original passengers. The mission to discover her secret becomes obsessive—and dangerous...

Richter 10: A violent earthquake killed Lewis Crane's parents when he was just a child. Now grown up, he has devoted his life to protecting humankind from earthquakes. A renowned scientist, Crane has developed technology to fuse the Earth's tectonic plates to stop earthquakes forever—but what repercussions will this have on the planet?
