In April 1944, innocent, 15 year-old Miksa was ripped from his home and taken first to a ghetto, and then to three concentration camps. He and his two sisters survived the camps, and another brother served in the army during the war, but Miksa's parents and baby brother all perished in Auschwitz. Read his amazing tale of survival and his journey from the Transcarpathian region to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Mike has spoken throughout Pennsylvania as well as in New York. He is a proud father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.
