The Favorite of Her Majesty Jerome Brooke

Includes the bonus book Queen of Wolves and related titles. The Queen was helped from her silk dress by her ladies in waiting. She stepped into her bath and dismissed the attending women. She then called to the youth waiting in the adjoining room. The young music master came to her side and bowed. "Do you fear a lady, my dear? Come, use the pail to pour more water over my back!" the Queen said, trembling with passion. Thus it was in the days of the Queen Mother. The Favorite of Her Majesty is an account of a youth who became the lover of the Dowager Queen of the realm. Partial Contents: Did Feast the Pack - The Lost City of Ophir.
