Not illustrated. 1871 edition. Excerpt: ...the resolutions passed at the Church meeting held on the 24th of October." A meeting was accordingly held on the 31st of October, at which forty-eight members were present, when the minutes of the previous meeting were read, and a resolution was unanimously passed, "That the above minutes be passed, confirmed, and ratified." The Defendant, considering that he was not legally dismissed, attempted to enter the chapel, and was resisted by force. He then indicted for a riot several of the persons concerned. Other disturbances took place; and on the 15th of March, 1869, the bill in this suit was filed to restrain the Defendant from taking possession of the chapel or acting as minister. The Defendant contended that the notices had not been read in the chapel, and that the meeting was illegal. The Vice-Chancellor James dismissed the bill with costs, being of opinion that the notice for the meeting of the 31st of October, 1868, was insufficient (1). The Plaintiffs appealed. (1) 1870. Feb. 22. Bennett before the meeting was called, Sib W. M. James, V.C., after stating so that he might have an opportunity to state the facts, and that in such a case every-one knowing what he was to meet. At that meeting ought to have been done in the that meeting a resolution was passed in strictest form, continued:--rescinding a resolution of the previous meeting. It appears to me that, if a meeting was called, but of the intention to pass was summoned for the purpose of such a resolution no notice whatever bringing charges, those charges ought to have been communicated to Mr. The second resolution was, that in It was stated at the Bar that these resolutions and proceedings were entered in different books in the custody of different persons; but that all the members of the...
