New Driver? Parent of a new driver? This book is designed to point out subjects that seasoned drivers might have forgotten to mention. After years of driving, some precautions become so automatic that we don't notice we are doing them. So teens, surprise your parents with your knowledge of unexpected dangers. Driving is an art and defensive skills are a must. There is a Driver's Quiz at the end. I hope that these thoughts and questions will prove challenging and will entice you to share your thoughts with your parents and that they will remember their experiences as new drivers as well.
