My Mind's Eye: Life, Pain & Love Kire Senoj

My Mind's Eye is a collection of poetic works inspired by what I see, hear, and feel throughout everyday life. I use words to express the passion and pain of love; the struggles of race; the self conflicts between sexual orientation and religious freedom; and the ever consistent delirium of genocide within the African American community. In order to bridge the gap between people of diverse backgrounds, my words have been penned to provoke thought, provide insight, inspire change, and prove that struggles have no respect of person.
