Shreir's Corrosion

This four-volume reference work builds upon the success of past editions of Elsevier's Corrosion title (by Shreir, Jarman, and Burstein), covering the range of innovations and applications that have emerged in the years since its publication. Developed in partnership with experts from the Corrosion and Protection Centre at the University of Manchester, Shreir's Corrosion meets the research and productivity needs of engineers, consultants, and researchers alike.

- Incorporates coverage of all aspects of the corrosion phenomenon, from the science behind corrosion of metallic and non-metallic materials in liquids and gases to the management of corrosion in specific industries and applications
- Features cutting-edge topics such as medical applications, metal matrix composites, and corrosion modeling
- Covers the benefits and limitations of techniques from scanning probes to electrochemical noise and impedance spectroscopy
