Don't Misjudge Who Your Real Enemies Are!: A Biblical Study on the Reallity of Demonic Forces (Concise Studies in the Scriptures) (Volume 4) Mr Raymond C. Faircloth

Although most Christians believe in the reality of Satan and the demons not too much thought is given to these forces in people's day to day lives. There is little consideration of the fact that these forces are the Christian's very powerful enemies. Furthermore, even within some churches there is a growing skepticism about the reality of such personal forces, or even outright denial of their existence. Sadly there are not many books available which gather up all the biblical information on this subject to give the Bible-believing Christian confidence in his or her faith concerning the spiritual forces of evil as really existing and from which the Christian must protect themselves. It is hoped that this book will fill the Christian's need in this regard and give the many Christian skeptics food for thought about their position before God in regard to taking the Bible seriously on this subject, rather than imagining that Jesus would simply ignore a superstition if that is what the teaching on Satan and demons actually is.
