This is a reprint of Windle's History Of Santa Catalina Island originally printed April 15, 1931 by Ernest Wendle, editor, The Catalina Islander. Courtesy of the Catalina Islander. Catalina's historical events in chronological order are the same as those of other American cities along the Pacific coast. But, the development of an island city in, the Pacific ocean reveals a few "highlights" not common to other communities. Scientists have spent weeks and months studying the geological formations, the botany and the origin of Catalina. There are many Avalon residents who are de-serving of a noteworthy place in "Catalina's Hall of Fame" and recorded here.
