Best Practices for Filing Chapter 13 provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on best practices for representing clients during a Chapter 13 case. Featuring experienced consumer bankruptcy lawyers, this book guides the reader through the issues and challenges faced by attorneys working with Chapter 13 debtors during this uncertain economic climate. From the initial client meeting to finalizing the Chapter 13 plan, these top lawyers examine the filing process step-by-step and analyze how to tailor a strategy to fit a client's unique situation and goals. These authors reveal proven advice for determining a debtor's eligibility, understanding home loans, and negotiating with Chapter 13 trustees. Additionally, these leaders discuss the lasting effects of BAPCPA, the slow economic recovery, and recent cases like Hamilton v. Lanning on debtors, attorneys, and the consumer bankruptcy practice as a whole. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts on the keys to success within this complex field.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities.
