Sarah's Tale Joanna Thomas

Sarah is an attractive twenty six year old woman and an efficient, personal secretary to the Managing Director of a bank. It is an important job and she has a lot of information about the bank and its security locked in her blonde head. One morning as she runs up the stairs to her office she is abducted and whisked away to a warehouse where she is bound and a sinister man begins the task of unlocking that information. Sarah faces an exhausting three day ordeal.
