Looking for lost 1890 census records? Look no further! With 1,282,836 records, New England States Directories is the verifiable substitute for lost census records! New England States City Directories are a part of Ancestry's efforts to provide substitute records for the destroyed 1890 census. When a basement fire in the Commerce Building in Washington, D.C. destroyed most of the 1890 U.S. Federal Census, a valuable source of information was lost to researchers of America's past. Ancestry, with the aid of the National Archives and Records Administration and the Allen County Public Library, now provides the first definitive online substitute for the missing census. More than 1.2 million records have been identified for inclusion in this disc. New England States City Directories is part of a series of CD-ROMs containing city and business directories from New England States in the years around 1890.

If you're unsure of where to start, this CD-ROM allows you to search age, Business name, Business Address, Comments, Directory, Given Name, Home Address, Occupation, Other Names, Page Number, Surname and Year.
