Courthouses are filled with varied and emotional stories of people's lives, from tragic accidents to silly wars of revenge. This book collects hundreds of these stories--from every state in the Union and from England--to explain the legal rights of neighbors. Neighbor vs. Neighbor explains how constitutional rights, zoning and regulatory laws and private restrictions affect neighbor disputes. Forty-three areas of neighbor disputes are examined, including : Noise Boundaries Animals Odors Airports Trespass Neighbor vs. Neighbor combines the law with humor, including such stories as: The girl so beautiful that 300 people gathered in the street The Christmas lights that were ordered shut off The car horn that killed 720 chickens The man awarded $100,000 when his wife ran off The woman who played music to describe her neighbors The roof that delivered 300 inches of snow a year on the neighbor The person breeding horses in front of his neighbor's window...and many more!
