Beach Memories & The Outdoor Poet Gregory A. Badersnider

Throughout my life I have experienced travels and adventures that can only come with time in the out-of-doors. From vacations and road trips along the shorelines of our Great Lakes to the coastal waters of our oceans, our beaches will always be a source of inspiration and fulfillment. Add in the many seasons spent in the woods, fields and waters of our great country and you will understand that time outdoors makes for many of us some of our most precious memories. These "shortest of stories" will be sure to spark meaningful memories and remind all of us of some the best times of our lives. This along with knowing that each new dawn offers experiences and adventures of which the best is yet to come. I hope you enjoy...! GB
