K2: The Savage Mountain (The Adventure Library) Robert Bates

The dramatic story of the 1953 American expedition to K2, the second-highest but generally considered the most difficult and dangerous mountain in the world. The Houston-led team failed in their attempt and tragedy struck them, but their courage and concern for each other has made their story one of the pinnacles of American Himalayan mountaineering.

First published in 1954

Introduction by James Wickwire

New afterword by the authors

New maps, color and b&w photos
