Maurice's Deployment: 40 Days in the Desert: (April '03-January '04) Maurice Saint-Amand
Sgt. Maurice Saint-Amand, Jr. is twenty-three years old and was born in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti. His parents moved to the United States when he was the age of one, and he grew up in Spring Valley, New York. After sixteen years of living in New York, he moved to Prince George's County, Maryland, where he completed his last two years of high school. He graduated from Parkdale High School in 1999; thereafter, he enlisted in the United States Army Reserves. Upon completion of basic training and training for his military occupation, he was inspired to go to college. In spring 2003, he was called to serve our country in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He performed twelve months of active duty service in which nine of those months were spent in Iraq and Kuwait. Being separated from family, church, school and work, he held on to his faith in the Lord, Jesus Christ. Having to put aside all his goals, dreams, ambitions and plans, he learned the sacrifice that is required to serve his country.
