Whisper Christopher Bailey

Jackson Holt had it all. A beautiful girlfriend, a starting position on the school's football team, a stable family and a comfortable life. And then the whispers started. At first that's all it was. Gentle whispers around him, though nobody was there. Then the visions started. Visions of a girl, of captivity, suffering, and of torture. With the visions came the seizures, and with the seizures came the doctors. Diagnosed schizophrenic and institutionalized for treatment, everyone reassures him that his condition is treatable. There's only one problem; Jackson believes the girl who speaks to him is real, and desperately needs his help. With his world unraveling around him and time running out, Jackson must risk everything to rescue a girl who may not even exist.
