If you like flowers, then you'll love this little book. It's a fact-filled guide that will introduce you to 12 different flowers that grow wild in fields, woods, and along country roads.

Inside are brightly colored sticker illustrations of the Indian paintbrush, goldenrod, buttercup, jack-in-the pulpit, black-eyed Susan, New England aster, and six other flowers. You'll also find a fact-filled description of each flower with a space for a sticker. As you learn about the flowers — their size, color, where they grow, and more, you can have fun placing the stickers on the proper pages.
