Changed Forever by His Grace Rhonda Lea Elliott

Read Rhonda's amazing story of healing and restoration from deep pain and despair. Her childhood was full of love and humorous memories, but also troubles, rejection, and loneliness. Although her Jewish family was basically non-observant, they were called "Jesus Killers" by some of their Gentile neighbors. As a result she didn't feel like she fit in anywhere. Wondering who this Jesus was, Rhonda searched for love and a place to belong. She ended up pregnant at a young age. She gave in to pressure to have an abortion. Post abortion trauma and distress caused depression and hopelessness to set in. She ran away and made more bad choices one after another, eventually becoming a single parent on the other side of the country and then on the other side of the world, facing dangers all the way. Shame kept her from going home for help. You will never guess what the next page will bring in this true life story. It is one unexpected turn after another! How will Rhonda ever find hope and help and healing for the turmoil in her soul? Will she find her place in the arms of the One in whom she can find forgiveness and grace beyond what she could ever deserve? The book includes interesting, little-known tidbits about Canadian history, particularly about Toronto where Rhonda was born and raised.
