Eighteenth Summer Molly Doyle

Kalie Jones is a popular beautiful eighteen year old girl who lives with a fake smile across her face. After junior year ends, she finds out her and her little sister will be spending the entire summer at their father's house, who they haven't seen in years. Kalie expects that he will be alone, but what happens when she finds out his new wife has a nineteen year old son, who is a wild player, and they begin to fall for each other? Summer days pass by, as she does things she's never dreamed of doing before, and then a phone call changes her life. Kalie and Dean know she has to leave after summer ends, but what will she do when she finds out her school gives her the option of skipping Senior year, because of her straight A's? Will Kalie chose love, or will she go back home and leave it all behind?
