Fortunes Crossing: An inspiring story of selfless courage and life-changing determination Lowell Teal
Fortunes Crossing is an inspirational narrative promoting personal values of faith, charity and self-discipline. Chet, a young businessman suffering from a terminal illness, devotes the last year of his life to dying with class; and to helping Gus, a recovering drug addict and alcoholic. Chet guides Gus in fulfilling his own purpose in life by helping and giving unselfishly to others, so becoming a productive member of society. The problems these two men face and the courage and mutual support with which they face them convey a powerful message: that the path to self-fulfillment is found, in large part, through helping others to find their way as well. Fortunes Crossing is the second of Lowell Teal's Bath Pond Books.
