Proposing Empirical Research: A Guide to the Fundamentals Mildred L Patten

- Provides step-by-step instructions for students who will be writing their first research proposal in the social and behavioral sciences.
- Each major section is divided into short topics. For each topic, students complete an exercise that leads them toward the goal of preparing a proposal.
- Numerous examples throughout the book make the recommendations for proposal writing come alive.
- The model proposals at the end of the book illustrate proposal writing and provide material for classroom discussions.
- Provides concrete guidance for students who will be writing proposals for both quantitative and qualitative research.
- The structure of this book enables students to work independently with confidence while writing the first drafts of their proposals.
- All steps in proposal writing are clearly described and illustrated.
- Ideal for use in:
  - research methods classes where students write a proposal as a term project,
  - thesis/dissertation preparation classes,

· senior research seminars where proposing and conducting research is a culminating undergraduate activity, and

· any graduate-level seminar in which the instructor wants to incorporate a project that will engage students in critical thinking about the content area.
