Blindsight Greg Hewett

Praise for Greg Hewett:

2010 Lambda Literary Award Finalist in Poetry

2003 Publishing Triangle Thom Gunn Award for Gay Poetry Winner

In poems that are full of wit, touching, and introspective, as well as formally inventive, we find the poet losing his sight, becoming a parent, and occupying middle age with a sense of calm and inevitability.

From "Skyglow":

*we spin filaments of light into profiles, drawing each other
through something resembling time and space and dark.
Let's call this something something vague and mythic
as the ether. Let's say we're ethereal.*
