The Vampires of Novgorod Magnus Hansen

1350 AD: Three unusual vampires rule Novgorod by night, each sporting their own particular style of rule. The vampire to the north dominates the populace with terror and violence. The vampire to the south rules by cunning and deceit. And with his army of bats and rats, the vampire to the east instills terror with pestilence and disease. They've held an uneasy truce for hundreds of years, until a beautiful countess enters Novgorod. They vie for her affections, only to be rebuffed at every turn. How can she choose, when each suitor is more horrific than the last? To complicate matters, a priest is tasked with killing the lot of them. But when he falls for the countess, the vampires become more than a little jealous...
